A Legacy of Excellence

Matteo Carcassi (1792-1853), a renowned Italian guitarist and composer, created this time-honored method over two centuries ago. Carcassi's method has been the cornerstone of classical guitar education for generations, providing a structured approach to developing technique, musicianship, and musicality.

Comprehensive and Progressive

Carcassi Classical Guitar Method New Revised Edition is a comprehensive and progressive guide that covers all aspects of classical guitar playing. It includes:

- Detailed instruction on posture, hand position, and fingering
- Exercises and studies to improve dexterity, finger independence, and coordination
- Scales, arpeggios, and etudes to develop technical mastery
- Traditional classical guitar pieces to enhance musicality and artistry

Expertly Revised and Updated

This new revised edition has been meticulously updated by renowned classical guitarist David Russell. Russell's insights and annotations provide invaluable guidance, making the method accessible to both beginners and advanced players alike.

- Clear and concise explanations
- Helpful tips and practice suggestions
- Newly added repertoire and exercises
