Venice is a city like no other. Its unique beauty and charm have captivated visitors for centuries. But beyond the stunning architecture and iconic canals, there is a hidden Venice waiting to be discovered. A Venice of hidden courtyards, secret gardens, and charming backstreets.

In her new book, One Two Go Venice, author Sarah Jane Evans takes readers on a journey through this hidden Venice. With her trademark wit and insight, Evans introduces us to the people who make Venice so special, from the gondoliers who navigate the canals to the artisans who create the city's famous glass and masks.

One Two Go Venice is more than just a travelogue. It is a love letter to a city that has captured Evans's heart. She writes about Venice's history, its culture, and its people with a passion that is contagious. Readers will come away from this book with a deeper understanding of Venice and a newfound appreciation for its unique beauty.

Here is a sample chapter from One Two Go Venice:

Chapter 1: The Grand Canal

The Grand Canal is the heart of Venice. It is a wide, winding waterway that flows through the center of the city. The canal is lined with palaces, churches, and bridges, and it is a popular destination for tourists and locals alike.

I love to take a gondola ride down the Grand Canal. It is a wonderful way to see the city from a different perspective. As you glide along the canal, you can admire the beautiful architecture and watch the gondoliers navigate the narrow waterways.

One of my favorite things to do is to stop at one of the many bridges that cross the Grand Canal. From the bridges, you can get a great view of the city and the canal. You can also watch the gondolas pass by and listen to the sound of their oars in the water.

The Grand Canal is a magical place. It is a place where you can relax and soak up the beauty of Venice. It is also a place where you can learn about the city's history and culture.

If you are visiting Venice, be sure to take a gondola ride down the Grand Canal. It is an experience that you will never forget.
