

Performance Based Pay For Educators: Assessing The Evidence

A Comprehensive Guide to Understanding and Implementing Performance-Based Pay for Educators

Performance-based pay (PBP) is a system of compensation that links teacher pay to student outcomes. PBP is designed to motivate teachers to improve instruction and increase student achievement. However, there is considerable debate about the effectiveness of PBP. Some studies have shown that PBP can lead to improved student outcomes, while other studies have found no effect or even negative effects.
