The book "With The Commentaries Of Shri Shankaracharya Shri Sureshwarcharya And Shri.", meticulously compiled and edited by Swami Gambhirananda, presents these seminal commentaries in a comprehensive and accessible format. This monumental work offers a unique opportunity to delve into the profound depths of Advaita Vedanta, gaining insights from three of its most revered exponents.

Shri Shankaracharya: The Luminary of Non-Duality

Adi Shankara, revered as the greatest philosopher of Advaita Vedanta, lived in the 8th century CE. His incisive intellect and unwavering devotion to the non-dual truth earned him the title "Jagadguru", the world teacher. Shankara's commentary on the Brahma Sutras, known as the "Shankara Bhashya", is a masterpiece of philosophical exposition that elucidates the fundamental tenets of Advaita Vedanta.

Through his lucid explanations and rigorous arguments, Shankara establishes the identity of the individual self (Atman) with the ultimate reality (Brahman). He expounds on the illusory nature of the world (Maya) and the path of Jnana Yoga, the path of knowledge and self-realization, as the means to transcend this illusion and attain liberation.

Shri Sureshwaracharya: The Defender of Non-Duality

Shri Sureshwaracharya, a disciple of Shankara, lived in the 9th century CE. He is renowned for his unwavering defense of the non-dualistic teachings of his master. Sureshwaracharya's commentary on the Brahma Sutras, known as the "Vartika", is a comprehensive exposition that addresses various objections and misconceptions surrounding Advaita Vedanta.

With meticulous precision, Sureshwaracharya refutes the arguments of rival philosophical schools and establishes the supremacy of Advaita Vedanta. He emphasizes the importance of viveka (discrimination), the ability to discern between the real and the unreal, and the significance of samadhi (meditative absorption) in realizing the non-dual truth.

Shri Madhusudana Saraswati: The Harmonizer of Traditions

Shri Madhusudana Saraswati, a renowned philosopher of the 16th century CE, is revered for his ability to harmonize the teachings of Advaita Vedanta with other Indian philosophical traditions. His commentary on the Brahma

Sutras, known as the "Advaita Siddhi", is a masterpiece that integrates the insights of Shankara, Sureshwaracharya, and other notable philosophers.

Through his profound scholarship and clarity of thought, Madhusudana Saraswati reconciles apparent contradictions between different philosophical systems and provides a comprehensive understanding of the nature of reality. He expounds on the importance of Bhakti Yoga (the path of devotion) and Karma Yoga (the path of selfless action) as complementary paths to self-realization.
